Application for Preapproval for a Service Dog

Before partnering with a Service Dog, there are several important things to consider.

Service Dogs are beneficial to thousands of people with disabilities, however it is not the answer for everyone. You must know without a doubt the benefits of a Service Dog will outweigh the inconveniences before deciding to become a Service Dog handler. Having a Service Dog will affect your entire household/family.

Please consider the following questions when making your decision.

Before beginning, you must understand there are no wrong answers to these questions – only answers that help you make the best decision for your needs and disability. The questions are designed to help you think and they're not meant to be answered with a simple "yes" or "no." Partnering with a Service Dog is a huge step, and every person's needs, desires, disability, abilities and situations are unique. Each set of circumstances deserves due consideration.

1. NPTSD provides the dog and training but there are still some costs you might be responsible for if financially able to do so. Are you financially able to afford the costs of caring for a dog for the next 10 to 15 years?
2. Are you prepared to care for a dog every single day? This includes feeding, training, exercise and companionship.
3. Are you willing and able to accept the obligations being with a Service Dog in public such as picking up feces, attention from the public, managing your dog in public?
